

DAR MAYWEATHER

SPEAKER | LECTURER | CONSULTANT

Dar Mayweather is a leadership studies faculty member at the University of North Carolina Wilmington and has more than a decade of diversity and inclusion teaching, consulting, and training experience.

His professional journey began in corporate, then mental health, before ending up in higher education. He holds a Bachelors of Science in Criminal Justice, a Masters of Science in Education and is currently pursuing a Doctorate in Educational Leadership at Eastern Michigan University.

He received Eastern Michigan University's Student Success and Engagement Award and the State of Michigan's King Chavez Parks Future Faculty Fellow Award.

WHERE I'VE BEEN:

✉ info@doingthegoodwork.com
🌐 www.doingthegoodwork.com
📷 @doingthegoodwork

CONTACT

SIGNATURE WEBINARS

Dar Mayweather helps his audience have energetic and confident conversations around diversity and inclusion through a leadership lens. He gets energy from speaking in front of crowds and now leading virtual spaces on leadership across differences. The following programs can be customized for all levels as a 40-minute webinar or ongoing facilitated cohort training.

OPENING EASIER CONVERSATIONS ON RACE

- Learn intergroup dialogue strategies
- Identify examples of racial awareness
- Explore the complexities of race and racial issues in American organizations

MOVING BEYOND BUZZWORDS IN D.E.I EFFORTS

- Be introduced to leadership concepts that support D.E.I.
- Develop meaningful personal and group values aligned with diversity and inclusion
- Discuss how to engage in D.E.I., in leadership through actions and behaviors

I AM MANY: SOCIAL IDENTITY IN LEADERSHIP

- Identify social identity group experiences
- Reflect on how we experience social identity privilege and oppression
- Increase awareness and appropriate response to these experiences in the workplace

TESTIMONIALS

“Dar definitely gave our members solid, thoughtful, and practical information to challenge themselves. Several attendees remarked that they realized a need to not only be more open and inclusive, but to take proactive steps to fight systemic racism and create a more supportive, understanding environment for their teams.

I T.J. Sullivan, Executive Director, Superior Chamber I

“Dar spoke at the State of Michigan KCP (King, Chavez, Parks) Conference. He was our first speaker to start off the conference and everyone raved at how great he did. Everyone agreed that he was an excellent choice to start out the conference. He is so great to work with and just an overall nice person!

I Jamie Vassel, State of Michigan KCP Conference Coordinator I

“Dar spoke at the university I work for and I was so happy that I attended the presentation. He is such an engaging speaker and made me rethink topics related to diversity and inclusion in the workplace. I can't thank Dar enough for coming to Ulndy!

I Rebecca Coutcher, Indiana University Bloomington Admissions Counselor I

SPEAKING REACH

PARTICIPANTS
30K+
ORGANIZATIONS
200+
CONFERENCE KEYNOTES
20+

